The John Mahon Undergraduate Teaching Award
Nomination Form

Please fill out this form & return to the History Department Office, 025 Keene-Flint Hall, by Friday, April 4, 2008.

You may nominate any current history professor- even those presently on leave- whom you feel deserves this award for their exceptional teaching ability and dedication. The only professors who may not be nominated are those who have received the award in the past three years- Professors Jacobs, Noll, and Pleasants.

Please consider each question seriously. Thank you

Professor _____ # of classes with him/her_____

1. What makes this professor worthy of this award? In what ways does he/she communicate their interest in the subject to students?

2. Are lectures clearly delivered? Is the information coherent & suited to the level of the course?

3. Is the professor responsive to student questions concerning the subject? Is the professor concerned about student progress in class?

4. How well do exams cover the lecture and text material? Are they evaluated fairly? Are exams and papers returned in a timely fashion and with helpful comments?

5. Additional comments (use reverse side if needed)